

“Do something. If it doesn't work ,do something else. No idea is too crazy ”

Jim Hightower

Special Events

Are you, the organization or the team searching for an exciting and effective "away day" for your team?

Are you scheduling the launch event for a key purpose, product or service you are promoting?

You may wish to arrange a fun day or organise the day around some specific commercial messages, whichever objective you wish to achieve, our consultants can assist you with the planning and delivery.

Metice consultants can take the pressure, the stress and strain out of planning and running a special event like this.

We have run many events similar to this, across a wide range of industrial sectors. Our consultants will link managing the occasion with development, presenting and facilitation.

Metice can assist your team with the following:

- Audio Visual, Lighting and Logistics
- Content and Development
- Presenting and Delivery
- Facilitation, Group Management
- Guest Speakers
- Team Experiential Activities

Choose the venue, consider both indoor and outdoor activity, and arrange experiential events from climbing through to raft building all is within the remit of the Metice consultant.

Call for a planning discussion